TYPHOID EPIDEMIC

HALEEM, O., Nov. 23.—Although the death list which now totals 13, may be doubled within the next two weeks, federal state and local health officers who are on the job, expressed the opinion today that the spread of the typhoid fever epidemic here will be checked this week.

A call for volunteers to offer their blood for transfusion to fever patients was issued today. Eight hundred and twenty-two cases, an increase of 21 since Saturday, were officially listed this morning.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feed young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

LEWIS' DEADLY LOCK ON ZBYSKO'S HEAD FLOPS POLE IN 1:25:45

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis of Lexington, Ky., threw Wladek Zbyzsko of Poland in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling match last night with a flying headlock, in 1:25: 45. Lewis thereby earned the right to meet Joe Stecher of Dodge, Neb., world's champion, who tonight threw Leon O'Donnell of France in 11:40 with a body scissors and arm hold.

Armos Laitinen of Finland planned Dan McDonald of Nova Scotia to the mat with a body hold in 10:32.
The Lewis-Zbyzsko bout was rough.
In both men trying often for toe-holds. In the last five minutes Lewis obtained three headlocks, from two of which his opponent escaped. Lewis was in jeopardy when the Pole got a toe-hold and the body hold, but squirmed out and gained his feet. With the final headlock he threw Zbyzsko to the floor and, retaining the hold, forced the dazed Pole's shoulders to the mat.

O'Donnell, who appeared in this country for the first time, gave a clever exhibition of defensive work until he succumbed to Stecher's favorite body scissors hold.

BUT LOOK WHAT YOU PAY FOR BACON

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 23.—How prices were still on the toboggan today with a 15 cent break and shippers hurrying supplies here as fast as possible to get out from under before bankruptcy overtakes them. Medium weights sold at $10.75 to $10.80, and heavier grades, 25 to 30 cents lower than that. This is a drop of $2.25 per hundred weight in the last three market days.

DUBLIN IS BARRICADED

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Persistent reports are current in league of nations assembly circles in Geneva that the league will propose that the U. S. accept a mandate for Armenia on condition that the league bears all expenses, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Geneva today. The telegram added that the league hopes thus to avoid friction among European states by giving the mandate abroad.

The U. S. congress has already rejected a proposal from President Wilson for America to accept a mandate for Armenia.

$70,000 FOR ONE WHO SOLVES MYSTERY

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A sum of $70,000 awaits the person who can solve the Wall street bomb explosion mystery that took the lives of two score people on Sept. 16. In addition to the sums previously offered, Wm. J.
Burns, international detective agency today advertised it would pay $50,000 for information leading to the conviction of persons responsible for the disaster.

Thus far official investigation into the explosion having proven fruitless, hope of solving the mystery has been based on the huge reward of tempting some one involved to "squeal."

The advertisement stated any information given would be held in strict confidence. It was said the Burns agency was acting in behalf of Wall street financial interests.

No Fear Now of Indigestion

A Host of People Seem to Thrive on What Used to Provoke Indigestion
Before They Learned of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

When the stomach becomes sour, with gasiness and heartburn due to indigestion or dyspepsia, relief may be had by one of two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Simply chew them, no hot water nor any other fillers for a stomach perhaps already too much overcrowded.

The tablets supply to the stomach the alkaline effect which is what relieves the sour acid condition. They also contain pancreatin to help digest the starchy foods such as potatoes, rice, oatmeal, white flour, etc.
Get a 60 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, have them on hand at all times and thus have no fear of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The fact that these tablets are on sale everywhere in the U. S. and Canada shows how generally recognized they are as an efficient aid when the dyspeptic stomach needs a little help—adv

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fery itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Men-the-Sulphur, says a noted skin spectalist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Men-the-Sulphur from any good drugist and use it like a cold cream.
